

Bess Streeter Aldrich Foundation
Educational Workshop and/or Presentations

To Register: aldrichfoundation@gmail.com 402-867-4233 Kurk Shrader, Director

Date	Time	Title of Workshop	Cost	Presenter	Location
Feb. 15 Sat	1 to 3 p.m.	Beginner's Genealogy Learn how to begin a family tree using a pedigree chart and family group form, trace and find ancestors through family members, websites, and DNA; and find/choose strategies to keep and preserve information.	$15.00	Kami Voboril	Aldrich Museum Limit 12 people
14-Mar Sat.	1 to 4:30 p.m.	Springtime Applique This Springtime Applique Class will include some prepared edge and 3-D applique. We will make a small floral wall hanging. The kit will include all fabrics needed to complete the project. Previous hand sewing experience is not necessary. The purpose of the class is to learn the skill, not perfect it. The project will be started in class. There will not be enough time to complete the project during class time.	$40	Sue McKee-Neill Minimum No. 3	Museum, 124 West D Maximum: 10 participants
29-Mar Sun.	1 to 2 p.m.	Facebook Focus-A Beginners Guide to Using Facebook Are you interested in knowing more about Facebook? This 1 hour class will help you to navigate through your profile page, learn how to protect your profile, create events, and more!	$15	Nicole Hoffman Minimum: 5	Museum, 124 West D Maximum: 15 participants
31-Mar-20 Tues.	10 a.m. to 4 p.m.	Wool Applique Participants will learn (from beginning to end) the process of this traditional folk art form. Barbara will explain how she got started and describe the process she uses. There will be many examples for participants to see. A complete kit will be provided to each participant that includes the following: background fabric, applique pieces, threads, backing, binding, and chenille needle. What to bring: basic sewing kit/items and a sack lunch. Deadline: TBD, Approx. March 15	$75	Barbara Bond American Rugs Minimum No. 4	Aldrich House, 204 East F Maximum: 10
18-Apr Sat.	10 a.m. to 4 p.m.	Sit n Sew Day Bring your hand work project for a sew day. Meet other people and learn about what they are working on. You can get help with your project (or at least opinions). Whether your project is applique, quilting, knitting, crochet, whatever needlecraft you have going, you are welcome to join in. We will do a show and tell of what you bring. Bring a sack lunch or order one from us	$15	Sue McKee-Neill	Museum for $5. Participants can come and go that day as there are not required hours of participation.

Minimum: 4

Maximum: 10

24-Apr 1 to 4 Bouncing Betts & Other Aldrich Flowers, Watercolor Class $18.00 Suzanne Yelkin Aldrich Gardens
Fri.

Designed for adolescents or adults, this beginning watercolor class will introduce participants to the use of watercolors and enable them to take home a completed garden painting. Participants are provided paints and brushes to take home.

Minimum: 5

Maximum: 15

25-Apr 1 to 4 Bouncing Betts & Other Aldrich Flowers, Watercolor Class $18.00 Suzanne Yelkin Aldrich Gardens
Sat.

Designed for adolescents or adults, this beginning watercolor class will introduce participants to the use of watercolors and enable them to take home a completed garden painting. Participants are provided paints and brushes to take home.

Minimum: 5

Maximum: 15

28-May 7 p.m. Spring Came on Forever Book Review FREE Laurie ZumHoef Aldrich House
Thurs.

This year the Aldrich Foundation is featuring Mrs. Aldrich's book SPRING CAME ON FOREVER. Laurie Zum Hoef, professor at Concordia College, will review the book for all participants. Come one or bring your entire book club to learn about this book. The book is available for purchase for only $15, normally $20.

June 15-18 12:30-3:30 Summer Writing Camp for Children $30 Cindy Backemeyer Aldrich House
Mon.-Thurs.

Students grades 3 to 6 are invited to participate in a four-day camp at the historic home of Nebraska Hall of Fame author Bess Streeter Aldrich. The camp will expose students to fun instructional strategies that will help them grow as writers! All materials and snacks are provided.

Minimum: 10

Maximum: 30

19-Jun 12:30-3:30 Bouncing Betts & Other Aldrich Flowers, Watercolor Class $18.00 Suzanne Yelkin Aldrich Gardens
Fri.

Designed for children grades 3 to 6, this beginning watercolor class will introduce students to the use of watercolors and enable them to take home a completed garden painting. Participants are provided paints and brushes to take home.

Minimum: 5

Maximum: 15

18-Jun 7 p.m. The Robber's Cave Review FREE Joel Green Aldrich House
Thurs.

For years, access has been denied to the infamous and notorious Robber' Cave. Now, Lincoln, Nebraska's, only underground attraction is no longer shrouded in mystery. Whether you visited Robber's Cave legally or illegally, are learning about it for the first time, or are one of the thousands who have returned to the sandstone tunnels for a trip down memory lane, you will enjoy discovering all aspects of the cave's fascinating past in ROBBER'S CAVE: Truths, Legends, Recollections by Joel Green. Green, a teacher and tour guide, tracks the cave's ownership through the past century and beyond,

28-Jun Sun.	1 p.m. or 3 p.m.	Fairy Garden Workshop	$25	Cindy Backemeyer & others	Aldrich Gardens
Participants (children through adults) will join an instructor in the Aldrich Gardens to make and take home a fairy garden (materials provided). Fee provides admission for one guest and one garden. Helpers pay only $5. Each participant may tour the Aldrich House, which will be a quilt show.
				Minimum: 8	Maximum: 20/session
18-Jul Sat.	9 a.m. to 3 p.m.	Barn Quilt Workshop	TBD	Kris Shrader	Aldrich Gardens
July/Aug tbd		Basic Woodturning	$5.00	Elmer Miller	Aldrich House
This workshop will give boys and girls enrolled in Junior High the basic skills in turning a pen on a wood lathe. Part 1 will be at the Aldrich House where students visualize how wood is gathered, determine how to place wood on lathe, and understand the parts necessary to make a pen. A separate optional date can be established for participants to make the pens at Elmer's shop. Participants, $15 (materials) and $5 for observers.
					Maximum: 15
July/Aug tbd		Basic Woodturning	$5.00	Elmer Miller	Aldrich House
This workshop will give adults and students in high school the basic skills in turning a nut bowl on a wood lathe. Part 1 will be at the Aldrich House where students visualize how wood is gathered, determine how to place wood on lathe, and understand the parts necessary to make a pen. A separate optional date can be established for participants to make the bowl at Elmer's shop. Participants, $15 (materials) and $5 for observers.
					Maximum: 15
Sept. 20 Sun.	1 to 2:30	Signs of Fall Nature Study, Parent/Child Activity	$15/pair	Suzanne Yelkin	Aldrich Garden
Suggested for early childhood-aged children and their parents, this class will introduce the child to signs of changing seasons and enable them to experience the changes of fall through (music, literature, and crafts. The fee includes parent and child.
Sept. 27 Sun.	1 to 3 p.m.	Fabric Pumpkins	$20	Kris Shrader	Aldrich Museum
Learn how to make easy fabric pumpkins for fall, Halloween or Thanksgiving! Each participant can make up to three pumpkins in varying sizes. All materials will be provided. The only sewing needed is a basic basting stitch (which is easy to learn).
				Minimum: 4	Maximum: 10